GENERAL NEWS

On October 30, John Bright was entertained by his friends and admirers in Dublin at a banquet. In his address, besides advocating the reform principles which have made him so famous, he considered the unfortunate condition of the Irish people, and advocated conciliation by Great Britain.

Scott, Thompson, Perry, and other parties associated in the construction of the Kansas branch of the Union Pacific R.R., have just paid George Francis Train fifty thousand dollars of the three hundred and fifty thousand due him as commissions in earlier negotiations of that enterprise.

The Memphis Avalanche, of the 1st instant, concludes an article as follows: "We will now close this article by stating that not in the world is there as much shooting, stabbing, and killing, as in Shelby county, when we take into consideration the intelligence of the community.

The Texas Legislature have unanimously passed resolutions to set apart a portion of the State cemetery for the burial of deceased Union soldiers, and appropriated five thousand dollars for the purpose of enclosing the grounds with a suitable wall.

The Philadelphia Press says that owing to the discovery of frauds, at the recent election in the Second Congressional District of New Jersey, Gov. Ward has given the certificate to the Hon. W. N. Newell, the defeated Republican candidate.

The annual ceremony of crowning the King of Pumpkins took place recently at the central market in Paris. The happy vegetable weighed two hundred and fifty-eight pounds, and measured ten feet four inches round.

The "Meteoric Shower" is reported as having been seen at New Haven, Troy, Chicago, Boston, and even in New York—but the "shower" was small, and the least said is the better.

Fernando Wood, newly elected to Congress from the Ninth District in New York, is said to be pledged to no political party, and is "in favor of the proposed amendment to the Constitution."

Leavenworth City, which was ten years ago a mere outpost in the Indian country, now has nearly 20,000 inhabitants, and is on the great Western route for traffic and travel across the plains.

Think of fresh meat being supplied to English tables from South America! Marvellous, incredible as it would seem, it yet appears to be on the eve of accomplishment.

Smith (who was there), drew a pitcher worth Victor Hugo's new novel is to come out in

SUBSCRIBERS AND BORROWERS.—The Richmond Examiner says that to subscribe to a newspaper is prima facie evidence of a philanthropic disposition, in at least one important particular. The man who takes a newspaper meets the high requirement of patriotic and enlightened citizenship, in yielding a quid pro quo, of returning value for value, and enjoys the satisfaction of paying for his instruction and entertainment; per contra, witness the picture embodied and delineated in the attributes of the non-subscribing, selfish, sponging reader of the papers of others. Such a character must ultimately go on from bad to worse. If admitted to intimacy, he will not only borrow your money, making no return and giving no receipt, but will cheerfully wear your hat or boots, and even appropriate for temporary use your finest coat. A test of intelligence and virtue should be the taking of a newspaper, and a rigidly applied criterion of piety, the prompt meeting of all obligations to the press.

scription of articles in his line, which may be wanted. His assortment of COOKING STOVES, will embrace every variety, and of His TIN WARE will be found equal, if not superior, to any ever offered for sale in Alexantion of ware of that kind, which they may need.

An experience of forty years in this business, enables him to claim that he has a practical knowledge of it, in all in his branches. But giving desires of not only accommodating, but giving satisfaction to his customers and to all purchasers, and they may be assured that what he sells will be of the best materials and of the best manufacture. He will warrant whatever he sells. It will be his object to secure patronage by constant and personal attention to his establishment.
With this announcement he will open his Manufactory, willing to show by his efforts that the patronage he asks, will redound to the advantage of those who buy, as well as of him who sells, and that the citizens of Alexandria, in this vicinity, need not go elsewhere to purchase what can be procured in their own city, from one of their own people. jy 12-2wtf
